

Top Tip Tuesday

Make it a habit to ensure that appliances you aren't using are switched off at the power point. Not only will this deter electrical mishaps in the home but will also save you money on your electricity bill in the long run!

Had an electrical disaster in your home recently? Call us on ####!

